

Hollywood Angel Cup International Youth Music & Art Festival

Hollywood "Angel Cup" International Youth Music & Arts Festival is hosted by the International Youth Culture & Arts Association, and gains great supports from the government in Los Angeles County, California State University, American Chinese Culture Association, Nightingale International Culture & Education Foundation USA, as well as many other music and arts organizations.

In July 22-24, 2010, the first Hollywood "Angel Cup" International Youth Music & Arts Festival (short for "Angel Cup" Festival) was held in Los Angeles. As the spotlight of global medias, the city of Los Angeles plays host to the annual Grammy and Academy Awards, the most famous and prominent award ceremonies in the world, which attract hundreds of millions of audience, in favor of the international communication and development of music and arts. As the home base of Hollywood, Los Angeles is turning into a paradise for contemporary music and arts. Therefore, the organizing committee of "Angel Cup" Festival chose "the City of Angels" as the first host city, with the open-mind atmosphere and environment of Music and Arts in Los Angeles, to enhance the culture exchange and communication among young artists all over the world.

The judges of "Angel Cup" Festival are composed of famous Hollywood Artists and renowned professors from music & art colleges. The diversity of race, age and expertise could assure the objectivity and fairness of the evaluation.

With frequent reports from local media, your team will definitely get promoted internationally and widely recognized.

All the teams and participants will obtain certificates from Festival Organizing Committee as a life-time honor and unforgettable experience of music and arts.
